Dear Dr. Rubenitz -

While it may still be somewhat early to regard the trip to Cuba as finished and the purpose of it as accomplished, I believe it to be near enough to its conclusion to warrant at this time my expressing my sincere thankfulness to you for the help you have given me. I hope that the outlay of such a considerable sum over a protracted period of time did not inconvenience you in any manner, and I wish to assure you again of my heartfelt appreciation for your generous assistance.

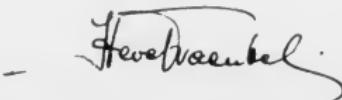

As regards the bond's return to me, it will be sent to me in the form of a check 2 weeks after I return to N.Y. I have to return the receipt for the $ 500 to the Cuban Mail Line in N.Y. upon my arrival, and they have to get the authorization of the Cuban Government in Havana before they on release the $ 500, hence the 2 weeks' delay.

I shall see if I can arrange to have the check sent directly to you; otherwise I shall forward it to you as soon as I receive it myself.

As you may have learned from the wire and the letters I have sent to Josephine, I was exceptionally lucky in getting my visa from the American Consul.
It took but 1 single day, and thus I was enabled to leave Havana after only 3½ days stay there.
I shall arrive in N.Y. tomorrow in the late afternoon and intend to depart from there Saturday evening.
According to my present plans (and providing my winter bus schedule is still correct) I shall pass through Canada in the evening of Monday, April 29.
I shall write Josephine in greater detail about the time of my return.

Thank you again and with best wishes to Mrs. Rubenitz and yourself, I remain,

Lincerely yours,

F. W. Vandenbel
